THE TRAGEDY IN PASQUOTANK.

In another column will be found an account of the shooting and killing of a Registrar in Salem township, of Pasquotank County. If our correspondence is correct in the facts which he gives, then Mr. Wilcox who did the shooting was justified to shoot his assailant in self defense. If Mr. Wilcox was not forced to shoot in self defense, then we condem his action, if he was forced to shoot in self defense then he is justifiable; but whatever the facts may be in the case one thing is clear, and that is, that Mr. Brothers, the Registrar would be living to-day were it not for the infamous election law now on our statute books, and for the desprate and dishonest methods which the Democratic machine i resorting to defeat the will of the people and keep themselves in power. In the Legislature Is the Power.

I do not undertake to specify all the provisions which it would be necessary to more numerous than the millionaires, and themselves it is in their power to control neorporate in a charter to secore to labor its just reward. All I attempt is to indicate the power which the legislature has legislation and enact such laws as will se cure to property the full protection to which it is entitled, to enterprise its just in creating and controlling corporations.

Formerly corporations having special privileges were created by special acts, which the courts construed to be contracts reward and to the toiling masses the political ambition, I may, I trust, without the imputation of interested motives, between the granting power and the corporators, which, once granted, could not be repealed or varied by the granting power. This granting of charters to favored be permitted to make some suggestions as to the policy to be pursued by the middle individuals, conferring upon them priviclasses and toiling masses to bring about leges not possessed by the eges not possessed by the general public, ecame obnoxious to public sentiment, such changes in the laws of property as by giving equal opportunities to all, will check the accumulation of vast wealth by and as a consequence general laws have been passed in this and many other states under which any three persons may be Reform Must Come Through the Ballot. come incorporated for any private purpose.
This has become a worse evil than the old If my voice could reach the people of the whole land, I would say to the million system of granting special charters. Under the general law enacted in this state 20 years ago I am informed 27,200 corporations have been created.

Irresponsible persons are often induced, for a small consideration, to form corpora- evil," and, in the language of the Saviour to subscribe for the whole stock except a share or two, and for a fancied, imaginary or worthless consideration to issue to man to enter the kingdom of God." Pusings of all corte is new to a Business of all sorts is now to a all. great extent carried on in the name of corporations, in order that the preprietors may escape personal responsibility. How can the individual, who is personally responsible for his contracts, successfully compete with a corporation run by persons who incur no such responsibility? Doing hastness in a corporate name not only paratyzes individual effort, but leads to a concentration of capital, the great evil of our time. The remedy for this growing state of things would be to restrict the formation of corporations to such as are formed for public purposes or such as the public have an interest in. Let those who think so crook the ower of England. I, for one, acknowltablish the value of coin as it existed

I desire to say a few words upon the en-roachments of federal courts upon the constitutional rights of the people. Of late years the United States judges have assumed jurisdiction they would not have dared to exercise in the earlier days of the republic. They now claim the right to determine the extent of their jurisdiction and enforce such orders as they think permitted to inherit property from another, and it is by virtue of statute law that great corporate monopolies have been built up.

No man has a natural right to dispose of property after death, nor has one person digates.

Fortunes exceeding that amount are usually acquired by speculation, trickery or same device by which one man takes advantage of his fellow man, and which, if not illegal, are immoral, or by members and unless checked by legislation they will soon undermine the very pillars of the constitution and bury the liberties of the people beneath their ruin.
